Windsor, August 28.

THE following Addreſs from the Burgh of Anſtruther-weſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by George Hamilton, Eſq; being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates, Council, and Burghers of Your Majeſty's ancient Burgh of Anſtruther-weſter, in the County of Fyfe.

Moſt Gracious and Dread Sovereign,

WIth the moſt ſincere Loyalty, profound Humility, and ſubmiſſive Reverence, we beg leave to approach Your moſt Sacred Throne, humbly to acknowledge in the ſincereſt manner our dutiful Gratitude to Your Majeſty, for the near View of a ſolid and laſting Peace, which (notwithſtanding the artful Contrivances and envious Efforts of deſigning Men) Your unſpeakable Wiſdom, and tender Care of Your People, has brought ſo great a length.

It is now our Duty, in all Humility, to beſeech Your Majeſty, that ſo glorious a Work, begun by Your obliging Goodneſs to Your People, and continued by Your ſtrenuous Efforts for their Welfare, may, by Your Royal and Princely Care, be brought to a ſpeedy and happy period, that Your People, who were bleſſed before by Your Glorious Reign in time of War, may quickly feel the unerring Conſequences of the Peace, upon the glorious and advantageous Terms, as propoſed by Your Majeſty.

May then Your Majeſty long live and Reign to enjoy the Throne of Your Glorious Anceſtors, and when the dreadful Judgment ſhall happen (which God of his Mercy long avert) of Your reſigning the Britiſh Diadem, may You receive an immortal one of Glory unſpeakable, from the great Rewarder: Which is the hearty ſincere Prayer of, may it pleaſe Your moſt Sacred Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful, moſt Obedient and Humble moſt Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of St. Michael, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Abraham Blackmore, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Lanſdowne.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Portrieve and Free Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough of St. Michael, in the County of Cornwall.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects beg leave to return our moſt hearty Thanks, tho' we want Words equal to the Senſe we have of Your Majeſty's Goodneſs, in communicating the Terms of Peace to Your People before You would conclude it.

We are ſenſible this great Condeſcenſion is what has been rarely uſed from the Britiſh Throne to their Subjects, and cannot but with Pleaſure obſerve, it never has been, but in the Reigns of ſuch of Your Anceſtors as have been the moſt eminently Wiſe, Great and Victorious.

The War in every part of it, Holland and Germany reſcued by Your Arms, Spain and Italy ſupported by Your Treaſure, have ſufficiently demonſtrated Your Power; and the Plan You have lain and inſiſted on for Peace, and Your Conduct in the Treaty of it, have given no leſs Proofs both of Your Juſtice and Wiſdom.

By it You have eſtabliſh'd ſuch a Balance of Power, as will ſecure to Europe that Liberty which Your Swords has gained for it, and Your Allies will now no more be in Danger of being over-run, and made Provinces to their too powerful Neighbour; a Benefit too great perhaps to be acknowledged by them; but we ſhall always with the utmoſt Gratitude both acknowledge and bleſs Your Goodneſs, in freeing us, not only from the Fears of the Enemy abroad, but from a Faction at home, who to carry on Deſigns they dared not own, were making us little leſs than a Province to our own Confederates.

Permit us too, to felicitate Your Majeſty on thoſe faithful and conſummate Counſels which without neglecting to procure a real Security and reaſonable Satisfaction to the whole Alliance, have reaſſerted to Your Imperial Crown its ancient Honour of being Arbiter of Europe, and provided a Recompence to Your own People, for the unequal Burthen they have born in this expenſive War, by reſtoring, ſecuring and enlarging of their Trade: Nor ought our Thanks for ſo univerſal a Bleſſing be confin'd to Your greateſt Cities and moſt populous Towns, ſince the whole Country and every Corner of it will feel the happy Effects of it.

May the ſame Reſolution and Conſtancy that has hitherto ſo ſucceſsfully carried on Your Negotiations through all the Difficulties that Envy or Self-Intereſt could raiſe to obſtruct them, put a ſpeedy as well as happy End to them; and may Your Majeſty long live to enjoy all the Honours due to ſuch great and good Actions, and that Satisfaction which good Princes take in the Happineſs they procure to their People.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Tenterden, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Brewer, Eſq; their Recorder, being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Steward, Jurats and Commonalty of the ancient Town and Corporation of Tenterden in the County of Kent.

AFter ſo long and expenſive a War, the near View and juſt Hopes of Peace, which Your Majeſty hath graciouſly condeſcended to communicate to us from the Throne, hath filled with the greateſt Joy and Gratitude the Hearts of all Your Subjects, except thoſe who Profit, and therefore may delight in War.

But if it was neceſſary for Your Majeſty's Subjects to become Principals in, and bear the greateſt Burthen of this War, (though chiefly entered into for the more immediate reſcuing Your Allies from imminent Dangers) and if that generous Undertaking hath ſo far ſucceeded, that by God's Bleſſing, ſuch Terms of Peace may be obtained, by which they may be delivered from Dangers, and become ſecure with additional Strength: If ſome particular Advantages in Commerce may be procured for Your Majeſty's own Subjects, certainly none ought to envy or deny Your Majeſty that Honour, or Your Subjects that Benefit which may accrue to them by a Peace, ſo juſt, ſo honourable, and ſo ſeaſonable; in which the real Ballance of Power in Europe, the Proteſtant Intereſt in general, the Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover in particular, and the Security of Trade for Great Britain, ſeem better conſulted and taken care of than by former Treaties.

May therefore no Enemies at Home or Abroad, ſucceed in their dark or more open Attempts to diſappoint Your Majeſty in the Honour and Bleſſings of ſuch a Peace; and that the great Author of Peace and Lover of Concord, may protect and defend Your Majeſty againſt the Aſſaults and Devices of all Your Adverſaries, are the conſtant Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty receiv'd very Graciouſly.
